STATE BELLE CUPID'S N

Cupid roared a former Texas man and a Mansfield, Mass., belle at one of the matrimonial fairs yesterday in the state, and a romance which had ranged all the country between Boston and the Rio Grande is now having a home for a couple.

William Harrison Furlong, Jr., Texas rancher, cowboy, hunter, and newspaper business man is the groom. He was Mrs. Frazier Rogers Emerson, Mansfield, Mass., and both were at the fair. Furlong is the sister of the late rancher at Billings, Tex., and known in the country as the proprietor Mansfield house, of a house which was inhabited by many blooded ranchmen.

Mr. Furlong is a commission merchant in men's furnishing goods, office is at No. 11 Sumner street, a resident of Texas since 1902.

proven in the abundant proceedings already taken. It is equally as in Thaw's trial for murder.

Neither of these proceedings would be further suggested and is a last effort to avoid further publicity. The mother of Harry Thaw is willing to arrange any amicable settlement if Thaw is willing to settle at the income of $10,000 a year upon Evelyn for life if the latter will refrain from contesting annuities proceeding in Pennsylvania.

The great stumbling block in the way of a settlement is Harry K. Thaw himself. His old-time devotion to his wife has survived his long imprisonment and he is not willing to be at liberty and as yet has refused to consider the question of a divorce.

Thaw Denies Divorce Plan.
A note was sent to him yesterday by Mattewman asking if there was any truth in the rumor that he would be divorced from his wife. The note was returned printed over the back of the paper.

Young Mrs. Thaw, when seen at her home yesterday, refused to deny or confirm the report, but referred every one to her mother.

Mr. O'Rielly said he knew of no action being taken as yet, but stated that he was going to be prominently for Eichen if he were elected.

Young Mrs. Thaw began proceedings. Other friends of young Mrs. Thaw intimated that unless the terms of settlement proposed by her mother-in-law were accepted, the matter would be brought before the courts.

... Among those outside was the Leyland Line Philadelphia, with Captain Gardner in charge. Captain Gardner reported the storm broke about five o'clock last evening, and at seven o'clock a vessel was sighted. He was forced to anchor, and sighted a tug boat for the rock. Harvard, having a European crew, was sighted lying on her side just outside the Graveyard.

The sailing schooner Pontiac arrived port early today with her flag at half mast and with four Portuguese fishermen of the Franco-Siles whom they picked up on board. The captain, Captain White, reported that when the ship came up the majority of his men were in the boats fishing, and they reached the schooner with the exception of Edward Wheeler of Gloucester. He hoped that the man was picked up by the sailing schooner Rose Cabral of Provincetown, which was in that vicinity, but he thought doubtful.

Driver's Name Known.

The authorities, including the police, the garage and the sheriff's office, have not given the name of the driver.

They are also after another mysterious man who may have been often at the Exchange Hotel in Monument square, and who knew a great deal about the conditions in the city. He is said to be a man so much like Julius.

Was this driver, who was employed at the Exchange Hotel, a hater, so suddenly disappeared and just when he was wanted to tell what he knew of the conditions in the city? He is supposed to be dead.

The police say, however, that it is strange that that while the accused in this case was a hater, the man who was with him some previous time, he would have closed the house and turned the lodge out to seek quarters elsewhere, rather than to himself and to the home of his sister, Miss Irene Swindler, to live there.

Still another fact which the authorities declare gives grounds for the belief that the driver was a hater.

UNEMPLOYED DEMAND AID AT CITY HALL

Reached by Morning Star, several hundred unemployed men gathered at City Hall at 2:30 today to demand aid. They were led by Mayor George H. Tibbels, who had made considerable plans to assist the unemployed in Boston, which was submitted to him yesterday by Mayor Swift.

In his position, Swift says that "the city must work for the unemployed by asking for a appropriation from the state treasury with which the city can secure relief for the unemployed. The city can secure relief for the unemployed by asking for a appropriation from the state treasury with which the city can secure relief for the unemployed."

The Mayor is now asked to grant the "Aid" to the unemployed by the city. The Mayor is now asked to grant the "Aid" to the unemployed by the city. The Mayor is now asked to grant the "Aid" to the unemployed by the city.

For Washington's Birthday

Saturday we shall remain closed all day. To tax our store to its utmost capacity and crowd two days' selling into one we have prepared a list of specials that will make today and tomorrow a carnival of bargain treats such as Boston has rarely, if ever, seen. To make this possible, costs and values have been positively ignored—prices have become mere shadows of what they formerly were; and when you consider that these concessions are made on prices admittedly lower than can be found in other stores, you must admit that the time and place to save money is here—today and tomorrow.

Men's Suits Overcoats

8.50 Overcoats 5.00 and Suits 5.00

Regular $8.50 values

Have been Red Tagged to sell at $5.00 and such a five dollars' worth!

You wouldn't really believe so much down-right value could be sold for so small a sum—until you come and run your eyes over these suits and overcoats. Seeing is believing—and seeing these garments—believing not the slightest mean for doubt.

Big Purchase Boys' Suits

Boys' $3.00 and 1.89 $3.50 Suits

We've just bought from one of the best known makers of boys' clothing in this country 1072 suits at prices that don't begin to cover the actual cost of production. The maker's name is a guarantee of quality in itself and his label is on every suit. The suits are double-breasted in good form, with wide lapels, and checked in black, brown, blue and tan. Thirty-inch Prince Chap coat styles, trimmed with braid, fifteen-gore, full-plaited skirt, with wide fold around bottom. A value you don't want to miss.
